

Tenant Financial Hardship Application

Protecting your privacy and respecting your rights: This information is being requested to assist us in commencing the process of your rental relief application. As we await the announcement of a 'Rent Relief Package' from the Government, we ask you to complete the below and provide accompanying documentation so that all details are on hand upon discussion with the owner of your property.

Please be aware that often owners will need to make investigations with third parties such as banks, mortgage brokers, insurance agents, which may take time. This first stage process has been set to reduce any possible stress, this application form will be confidentially kept on file pending the government's announcement.
